Reference Letter

To whom it may concern,

I deem it a great honor to introduce you this excellent candidate. He has left me a deep impression during his internship in our company. Thus, I didn't hesitate to say yes when he asked me for a reference letter and hoped my words will help smooth his application for your program.

Boxuan Lu has a strong learning initiative and ability to improve work efficiency and quality. I remember that during his one-month internship, he has a preliminary understanding of Alibaba Group. He has learned and read the Alibaba java development manual, mini project icon drawing, according to the preliminary system analysis results to improve the system analysis, Redis for learning and using small-scale project development, these gave him a certain understanding of the industry and the company. According to my observation, as a newcomer in the technical department, he could seize every opportunity to learn and catch up in a very short time. Thanks for his active investment in projects.

Beyond that, I find that Boxuan Lu is a person with inclusive and communication ability. He quickly adapted to the tense working atmosphere in our company and cooperated well with his company. Faced with heavy workload, he kept himself highly motivated and got his tasks done efficiently. In addition, he has showed his ability to search solutions for various problems he faced across different phases from system analysis to developing. The work was completed efficiently and won wide recognition from customers and colleagues.

With excellent learning and communication skills, I believe Boxuan Lu is qualified to enter your company. At the same time, he will definitely add valuable insights and professional experience to your academic community. If you have further questions about his qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.
